

JANUARY BENEFIT CONCERT

to save the historic

AUSTIN ORGAN

Organist Sam Polk

Saturday, January 5th at 3:00

Free Admission

Trinity United Methodist Church

265 Washington Street, SW Atlanta, Georgia 30303-3511
(Trinity and Washington Streets across from Atlanta City Hall)

Doors open thirty minutes prior to event.
Organ tours and a reception will follow the program.
Free parking available (with validated parking ticket)
beside the church at Government Center Parking Garage

Join us in this magnificent setting for a memorable concert by organist Sam Polk, who will be playing works by Harris, Manz, Ward, Fletcher, Sowerby, Bach and Widor.

Mr. Polk received his degree in organ performance from the University of Southern Mississippi as a student of Dr. Paul D. Andersen. He pursued graduate study at the Cincinnati College-Conservatory of Music studying under Dr. Roberta Gary.

He is employed by A. E. Schlueter Pipe Organ Sales & Service and is organist at Big Canoe Chapel.

