Giving Our Hearts Away: Native American Survival

The purposes of this study are to learn about the inter-relatedness between the indigenous peoples and their land, to identify selected key issues affecting the Native Americans in the United States; by examining the root causes of these issues and to come to understand and appreciate the "Give Away" Culture of the Native Americans in the areas of spirituality, ecology, language, story-telling, food and to lead participants to act as responsible US citizens and Christians in accompaniment and solidarity with Native Americans.

Food and Faith

This study is about how our faith is nurtured, strengthened and enhanced by food and all the ways food touches our lives. It is no accident that our most profound sacrament, Holy Communion, is food. We will explore how the bread and fruit of the vine illustrated the magnitude of God's love for us on multiple levels. We will look at relationship with food are complex and individual; where food is our companion, comforter, a quiet friendly presence that can fill empty moments in our lives and yet be our enemy in our fast-paced world.
