Dear Scripture Reader,

Thanks for volunteering to read scripture for our worship service.

A copy of this week's bulletin may be available at <http://www.gb-gm-umc.org/caledoniamn/adobebulletin.pdf>. (It is usually uploaded near the end of the week.)
A link to the text of the readings is available at <http://divinity.lib.vanderbilt.edu/lectionary/>. Please feel free to use any Bible translation you prefer.

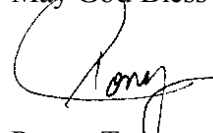

When you come up to read the scripture passages, it would be appropriate to begin by saying something like, "This morning's scripture lesson is from the (chapter number) th chapter of (book of the Bible). You can follow along with me on page (page number) in your pew Bible." (Then take a breath and silently ask God to speak through you as you read.)

When you finish reading, you can say something like, "This is the Word of the Lord", (to which some people may respond "Thanks be to God.")

I encourage you to read through the lessons a couple of times out loud at home this week before Sunday. This way you will be well aware of any potential "tongue twisting" moments. If you have any questions about the meaning or pronunciation of anything, please do not hesitate to give me a call.

Thanks again for taking part in this most important portion of our Worship service. Until Sunday,

May God Bless You!

Pastor Tony
