A day of gratitude and friendship —

Most Americans, learning about Thanksgiving's origin, hear or read about the destitute Pilgrims who suffered greatly during their first bitter winter in America. Many Pilgrims got sick, and half of them died.

What we don't focus on enough is the fact that Native Americans took pity on the Pilgrims. They befriended the newcomers and gave them food. They taught them how to survive the vicious cold months.

Then, when the earth grew warm again, the Indians taught the Pilgrims how to grow various crops and how to store any surplus. It was primarily because of the natives' friendship and helpfulness that the Pilgrims began to eke their way from disaster to fruitfulness.

It's no wonder that when the Pilgrims had their first successful harvest, they invited their Indian neighbors to celebrate with them. The natives didn't come empty-handed. They furnished venison, wild turkeys and probably vegetables from storage. It was, more or less, a potluck affair. The Pilgrim leaders prayed gratefully at the occasion.

We can be confident that an unseen but not unexpected Guest was very much present that day.

new fountain united Methodist youth news

Are you hungry for some culture? ... Are you searching for a nice evening out with your family? ... An evening where you can enjoy a beautiful meal and be entertained by a lovely troop of actors??? ... then my friend you are in dire need of the New Fountain United Methodist Youth Christmas Dinner Theatre ...

Imagine Christmas 1944, Arthur Kensington is trying his best to keep his little radio station on the air. Despite his best efforts, things are not going well. His "staff" includes a dyslexic sound man, a drama queen, and a pompous actor who has rewritten the Nativity story as a hard boiled detective story. During the chaos we meet an Army hero who has lost his faith, a young man who is dreaming of war's glory, a lonely orphan, and a young wife who's husband is missing in action. Somewhere along the way it becomes evident this radio show is more important than ever. Please join us as we bring to you "WORD Radio, Christmas on the Homefront". A play written by Dave Tippett.

Your New Fountain youth will bring this performance to you, along with the scrumptious meal on Sunday, December 13, 2009 at 6:00 p.m. in the Fountain of Life Center. The hard work and dedication put forth by the youth group is all for a trip they are planning in July to Memphis, Tennessee to visit St. Jude Children's Hospital. While there they hope to meet some of the patients they have learned about and to find out first hand what an impact CANCER has on all our lives. They will be moved, motivated and prayerfully guided during this learning experience.

Thank you in advance for your time, donations, prayers and all that you do for our youth ... for they are truly the future of New Fountain, and how blessed they are to have a congregation that loves and supports every avenue they dare to travel.

In Christ,
Jamie, Melody and Ronnie

KING SIZE.....

One of my favorite magazines is called “King Size”. Well, it’s really not a magazine, but a catalog that I can order my extra size clothes. Now please, if you know me you would recognize the fact that I am ... How would you say it? ... KING SIZE.

Charlie Parker

As I look at these beautiful plaid shirts for the fall, I dream how wonderful it would be to look exactly like the model on the front cover. He is black, but you know I don’t even see that. All I see is this great looking ...muscled man, and how fantastic I would look in this (woodsey) looking red & white long sleeve warm shirt. I just know that if I order this shirt maybe people would accept me for who I am and not for how “King Size” I am. Just maybe, I could snuggle right into the acceptance by the people and become like everyone else thinking that just because of this good looking model, I too could be like him (black or not).

As I flip the pages of this book my mind wanders as to how our “Christian Church” is like a “King Size” catalog. We are all models — black, white, yellow, brown, underweight, overweight, tall or short. What we have to offer the world is who we are. We are the best example of Christ that we will ever have to show our friends, our family, or to whom-ever opens our book. We are the example of that beautiful plaid shirt offering to someone who sees, hears, and knows us The Picture of Jesus Christ.

We are coming together this time of the year to celebrate who we are — Christians. We will eat together at Thanksgiving and sing together with the birth of Jesus at Christmas. Let all of us participate as we put on that KING SIZE cloak of LOVE IN JESUS.

“We do not live to ourselves, and we do not die to ourselves. If we live, we live to the Lord, and if we die, we die to the Lord; so then, whether we live or whether we die, we are the Lord’s. For to this end Christ died and lived again, so that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living.”

—Romans 13:7

The beginning of Advent ...

November is the month of Thanksgiving, but it often also includes the beginning of a new church year. This year, November 29 is the first Sunday of Advent. The season of Advent is about Jesus, the Word, “coming.”

God comes to us in many and various ways. He speaks to us through the prophets and saints. He comes and speaks to us when we are listening. He comes in the beauty and mysteries of nature. Most of all, God comes in the person of Christ, speaking to his listeners face to face.

Pastor Edmund Steimle put it this way: “The Christian story is a story of God coming into the middle of life, of our lives, opening the dialogue with us.”

That’s what Advent is really all about: God visiting the earth in person to speak with any and everyone who is ready to do so.

LOVE

The Angel Tree JOY

It is that time of year again. Christ is coming! We all have so much to be thankful for, especially when calling on our Angel Tree families.

We haven’t been notified as to how many children nor families we will be sponsoring this year, but it will be soon. I will update you as soon as possible. We will need to collect two gifts per child, plus a food coupon and Bible for the family. New Fountain members have such loving and generous hearts and always share their blessings. The Holy Spirit is so alive at New Fountain. I thank God for each and everyone of you. I am asking for volunteers this year, so please pray and ask God for guidance. You may contact me or call the Church Office at 830-426-4219.

The Angel Tree will be in the Narthex by November 29, 2009.

I request your help by taking an “Angel” tag — either a gift, a food coupon, or a Spiritual Angel, then allow me and my helpers to record where the Angel is going, so we can keep track. You have until December 20 to purchase a gift and return it to the Church Narthex. Each gift must be new, gift wrapped, and valued at $20.00.

Remember the gifts are given on behalf of the prisoner-parent in celebration of the Birth of Jesus Christ. You are the hands and feet of the prisoner-parents to help them reach out to their children. The child should not be imprisoned along with their prisoner-parent and they are open to hearing about God’s love.

A successful Angel Tree experience requires the prayer and work of our Church team. This provides a way for our local Church member to experience the joy of giving while building a loving bridge between a prisoner and a child.

Thanks in advance for your generosity.

NEW FOUNTAIN UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

All UMW members are reminded to bring the world thank offering to the meeting November 3, at 7:00 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall. Imogene Meyers will present the program. Hostesses for the November meeting and church altar flowers are Elaine Browning, Ellen Ferguson, and Arlene Nickens.

On October 18 the UMW sponsored the visit to Community Care Center.

United Methodist Women carry on the "Mission Tradition" set in motion by eight women that met in Boston in 1869. They were concerned about their women and children abroad that needed health care and educational opportunities. We join together with prayers and offerings to fight for people who are weak, who have less who are marginalized.

"We give because we believe women and children need extra care....."

FAITH - HOPE - LOVE IN ACTION!"

THANK YOU for all the cards, calls and good wishes sent our way as we observed our 60th wedding anniversary during October.

You are a blessing to us as we continue our way to year 61.

Attitude of GRATITUDE

The Thanksgiving holiday reminds us that we should always be grateful for the many blessings God provides. Keep a special gratitude journal, and write in it often to keep an attitude of gratitude.

What you need:

- Paper (8 1/2" x 11" sheets, plain or lined)
- Stapler
- Stickers
- Crayons or markers

What you do:

1. Fold several sheets of paper in half.
2. Staple the pages together on the folded crease.
3. Write "Attitude of Gratitude" on the cover.
4. Decorate your journal with stickers and drawings.
5. On the inside cover, write "Give thanks in all circumstances, for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus" (1 Thessalonians 5:18, NIV).
6. Use your journal daily as a reminder of your blessings and as a guide for when you say prayers.

He gave thanks

This Thanksgiving, you may share a special meal with family and friends. Do you remember the time when Jesus shared a meal with thousands of people and gave thanks?

Use the clues to find important words from Matthew 14:19 (NIV).

Across

1. opposite of down
3. opposite of up
4. more than one loaf
6. penniless
8. place where God dwells
9. bass, halibut, salmon and others
10. past tense of give
11. a command you give to a dog

Down

2. another name for humans
7. _____ giving
3. twelve of Jesus' closest friends
9. odd number after 4
5. what a lawnmower cuts

Across: 1. up, 3. down, 4. loaves, 6. broke, 8. heaven, 9. fish, 10. gave, 11. sit Down: 2. people, 3. disciples, 5. grass, 7. thanks, 9. five

Psalm 121 focuses on the assurance of God's help at all times. The final two verses (7-8) begin:

"The LORD will keep you from all evil; he will keep your life. The LORD will keep your going out and your coming in..." (NRSV)

Choose the correct ending of the psalm:

- today and every day.
- as long as you live a good life.
- if you ask God to do so.
- from this time on and forevermore.
