
Featured Story - David Cleveland

Having grown up in an Assembly of God pastor's home, one would think that my life was all wrapped up and in order. However, being a pastor's kid doesn't ensure a great relationship with God. We have to work out our own salvation just like anyone else. I was introduced to Jesus at a very early age and have been in the process of working out my salvation ever since!

Over the years, I have been employed in many different fields such as human resources, business and industry training, law enforcement, counseling, and pastoring. I am a "people-person" and have enjoyed the social aspect of all of the jobs that I have held over the years. However, I would have to say that my favorite areas of employ have been those where I could minister to others and help them by pointing them to Christ. Sometimes that happens by simply spending time listening.

I am privileged to have become a part of Wesley United Methodist. The people here have been very accepting and caring and I really enjoy being a part of the worship team. I began coming to Wesley because my sister attends here and gave a glowing recommendation of the church, its people, and its ministries. The love and acceptance that I have found here have really encouraged me in my walk with Christ.

As a part of the ministry to Wesley people, I have become a part of the visitation ministry. I will be visiting shut-ins, those in the hospital, newcomers, visitors, and those who have not been to Wesley in awhile as well. I will also be available for biblical counseling as I am trained and have certifications in such.

Wesley United Methodist is a wonderful church. I am glad to be a part.
