

All Saints' Day This Sunday we celebrate the lives of those in our church who have died in the past year. We have requested their photos from their families. In addition, if there are members of your family who have died in the past year that you would like us to remember, please write their name on a card and bring it to worship. Hand it to an usher and we will read their names as well. This All Saints Day is a time to remember that Christians are saints, not because we are sinless, but because we have been washed clean of our sins by the grace of Jesus Christ. We will conclude by gathering at the Lord's Table to celebrate the line from the Apostles' Creed, "I believe in the communion of the saints" which affirms we continue to be united with those who have gone to be with the Lord.

MISSING: Yada Yada Prayer Group Gets Decked Out. No sign-out card was left to indicate the borrower. If you inadvertently left the card in the book, and borrowed the book to read, please return the book after reading. This series is in demand, and now we have to new novels by Neta Jackson, author of Yada Yada Prayer Group series. The novels are Where Do I Go? and Who Do I Talk To? They will be cataloged and ready for reading and placed on the bookshelf at the library door. Always keep in mind—return books as soon as possible after reading. Thank you! AND We have many, many good books for pleasure reading and bible study.

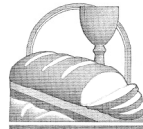

Mary Shankles, Librarian

Friendship Club & Lunch - Tuesday, Nov. 3.

All members, please bring side dishes of vegetables & salads for our lunch.

Holy Communion Matters

Our church has an "open table" which means all who desire to follow Christ and their children are invited to the Lord's Table to receive the bread and cup. Due to the concerns for health, the worship service use a hand sanitizer before serving the bread. Bottles of sanitizer are available for the congregation also. Also some prefer to only receive the cup. Please allow the servers to put the bread in your hand so the loaf is handled only be the server rather than all those being served.

Mission Team Training

All who want to go on the International Mission Project are invited to meet Thursday Nov. 12 from 6-8 p.m. with Rev. Larry Norman. He is the Volunteers in Mission coordinator for the Louisiana Annual Conference, and is familiar with many mission projects.