

Human Trafficking - Slavery in the 21st Century The Multi-Dimensional Threat to Victims and Communities

The United Methodist Women of Bristol Hill United Methodist Church invite you to join us for an evening of learning. The act of human trafficking is inhumane and criminal and imposes devastating effects on victims and communities. Our key note speakers for the evening are Carrie Buchmann, Human Trafficking Case Manager from Hope House, and Det. Jason Young and Det. Matt Fowler of the Independence Missouri Police Department Intelligence Unit. Together they spearhead the Human Trafficking Rescue Project which is funded by the Department of Justice as of 2007.

Thursday, July 10, 2008, at 7:00 p.m. until 9:00 p.m.
Bristol Hill United Methodist Church,
4826 County Line Road, Kansas City, KS.
RSVP DEADLINE – July3, 2008.

A donation of any of the following items will graciously be accepted that evening on behalf of Hope House.

- Blankets (Twin Size)
- Canned fruits and vegetables
- Diapers (size 4 and 5)
- Household Cleaning Products
- Make-up
- New Socks and Underwear for Women or Children
- Women's Feminine Hygiene Products
- Paper products (toilet paper, paper towels)
- Personal Hygiene Products
  - Toothpaste
  - Soap
  - Deodorant
  - Toothbrushes
  - Combs and Brushes

Unable to attend, but your church or organization would like to donate items? Arrangements can be made in advance. We hope to see you at this extremely informative, free presentation about human trafficking in our communities and the victims of this heinous crime.
